

There have been many unofficial catchphrases making the rounds with regards to the 2019-20 Federal Budget such as Pre-Election Budget, Back in Black, Budgeting for a Miracle, and Pre-Poll Cash Splash.

This being said, the 2019-20 Federal Budget is being officially referred to by the Government as a 'Stronger Economy, Better Future for Australians'.

With this in mind, the Federal Budget priorities, and subsequent proposed measures, primarily focus on delivering in the following areas:

- a better tax system
- investing in economic and community infrastructure
- delivering skills for today and tomorrow
- guaranteeing essential services
- restoring trust in the financial system

Below we have provided you with an article that covers the main proposed measures that may be relevant to you and your personal finances, as well as three videos that may be of interest if you want to know more.
