

This month's newsletter begins with information on Government super contribution measures, which may help eligible individuals to grow their super for retirement. Our animation illustrates the Family Home Guarantee—a new Government scheme to assist eligible single parents, with dependent children, purchase a home. Passing away intestate can cause undue emotional and financial distress for loved ones left behind—we provide an update on Australian intestacy rules. An insurer may include beneficial supplementary provisions alongside the core provisions of their TPD insurance policy offering—we discuss these supplementary provisions. We also have a thought-provoking TED Talk by Tom Oxley on the importance and benefits of organisations creating a safe and supportive environment for employees—especially when it comes to mental health in the workplace.

Lastly, in Vanessa Stoykov's latest financial education piece, she talks about limiting thoughts and beliefs around money, and how to change your money mindset for the better.
