

The 2022-23 Federal Budget was delivered on 29 March 2022 by Treasurer Josh Frydenberg.

Notably, in this year's Federal Budget, the Government's policy priorities—and the proposed measures announced to help achieve these priorities—centre on delivering on a plan to strengthen the future for all Australians by:

- building a stronger and more productive economy to create more jobs,
- addressing the cost of living pressures and managing current challenges,
- strengthening our regions and critical infrastructure,
- guaranteeing essential services, and
- protecting our interests.

Below is an article highlighting the main proposed measures that may be relevant to you and your personal finances, and two videos that may be of interest.
