

With rising inflation and interest rate hikes expected to hang around for some time, many households across Australia will be watching and waiting to see what unfolds over the coming months. Whether you're feeling confident or cautious about your finances, now is the time to make sure they're in the best shape possible.

This month, we share some practical tips to bring your finances up to speed, we chat to a family lawyer about getting your financial affairs in order, and we show you ways to scrutinise your annual super statement. Also, with the cost of borrowing going up, we take a look at some common debt repayment strategies. And, lastly, if you're nearing retirement, our sequencing risk animation could be worth a moment of your time.

Enjoy the edition.
