Advisory

Navigating Aged Care,
Together.

Accredited Aged Care Specialists

We help lighten the load by providing educational, financial and emotional support and advice, relating to the many care and living options that are available to older Australians.

You might be asking:

Where do I turn?

What's my first step?

Who can unravel the complexity?

At Ageing With Grace Advisory, we support you with paperwork, advocacy, the financial and emotional journey, as well as family dynamics during a time of uncertainty.

*Our Accredited Aged Care Specialists:
Jessica Cooke, Kara Treeby and Sarah Leslie*

Navigating Aged Care & Living Options

There are many options you may not be aware of when it comes to available care, including your eligibility for Government support.

At Ageing With Grace we know that speaking and working with Centrelink (Services Australia), DVA and My Aged Care, can leave you overwhelmed.

We'll help you understand your care, living and financial options. Our Aged Care Specialists can also speak with Government agencies on your behalf.

Remaining at Home With Support

Often the most desired step, let's explore how to stay in your own home longer, with the right care and support in place.

Downsizing & Retirement Living

We'll review your options for when it's time to downsize or if you're considering moving to a retirement community.

Assisted Living & Supported Accommodation

We'll explain the difference between the two and whether one is the right step for you or your loved one.

Exploring Residential Aged Care

Helping you navigate residential aged care with deep expertise, from ACAS/ACAT assessment to choosing the right home.

Palliative & End of Life Support

We'll provide compassionate and caring support for families during life's final chapter, with dignity and grace.

Not sure of your current options or what's available to you?
